NAME AND ADDRESS REMOVED

Notice Type: Receipt Notice

 ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT ***

Your complete Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal was received and is pending as

You may remain in the United States until your asylum application is decided. Having a pending asylum application with USCIS does not preclude U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) from placing you into removal proceedings. If you wish to leave the United States while your application is pending, you must obtain advance parole or, for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) recipients, approval of Form I-512T, Authorization for Travel by a Noncitizen to the United States (sometimes referred to as MTINA TPS travel authorization), from USCIS or you may be considered to have abandoned your asylum application. You must report a change of address to USCIS within 10 days of moving by following the instructions on the How to Change Your Address webpage (https://www.uscis.gov/addresschange). Changing your address with the U.S. Postal Service will not change your address with USCIS.

BIOMETRICS APPOINTMENT AND ASYLUM INTERVIEW NOTICES:

You will receive a notice informing you when you and those listed on your application as a spouse or child dependent must appear at an Application Support Center (ASC) for biometrics collection. You will also receive a notice informing you when you and those listed on your application as a spouse or child dependent must appear for an asylum interview. Those notices will contain instructions for what to bring to your ASC appointment and what to bring to your asylum interview.

WARNING: Failure to appear at the ASC for biometrics collection or for your asylum interview may affect your eligibility for employment authorization and may also result in the dismissal of your asylum application or referral of your asylum application to an immigration judge.

EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION:

You may file a Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, based on your pending asylum application 150 days after you filed your asylum application. You are not eligible to receive an Employment Authorization Document (EAD) until your asylum application has been pending for at least another 30 days, for a total of 180 days. 8 CFR 208.7(a)(1). The 150-day waiting period and the 180-day eligibility period, commonly referred to as the 180-Day Asylum EAD Clock, do not include delays that you request or cause while your asylum application is pending with an asylum office or with the Immigration Court. 8 CFR 208.7(a)(2).

Delays requested or caused by the applicant may include:

- A request to transfer a case to a new asylum office or interview location, including when the transfer is based on your change of address;
- A request to reschedule an interview for a later date;
- Failure to appear at an interview or biometrics appointment;
- Failure to provide a competent interpreter at an interview (if required);
- A request to provide additional evidence at or after an interview;
- The submission of large volumes of evidence immediately before an interview that requires a reschedule; and
- Failure to receive and acknowledge an asylum decision in person (if required).

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

USCIS encourages you to sign up for a USCIS online account. To learn more about creating an account and the benefits, go to https://www.uscis.gov/file-online.

Notice for People with Disabilities

To request a disability accommodation:

- Go to uscis.gov/accommodations to make your request online, or
- Call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833) for help in English or Spanish. Asylum and NACARA 203 applicants must call to make their request.

If you need a sign language interpreter, make your request as soon as you receive your appointment notice. The more advance notice we have of your accommodation request, the better prepared we can be and less likely we will need to reschedule your appointment. For more information about accommodations, visit uscis.gov/accommodationsinfo.
